Your support of United Way helps people during times of crisis by maintaining our community's safety net:

- Last year, your support helped 46,000 people with essential emergency assistance in our Mid-South area.
- United Way partners provide emergency shelter, food and clothing to people in need
- United Way partner programs help people with access to transportation for healthcare
- Our dial 2-1-1 help line connects people who need help with agencies that provide help
- Your support helps people in the aftermath of house fires, addresses our region's homeless challenges and feeds families who would otherwise go hungry.
