what matters™ : Maintaining our community's safety net

United Way creates results that ensure basic health and human service needs are met in the Mid-South. Working with local programs and initiatives, United Way helps people in crisis by focusing on what matters:

What matters: Meeting basic needs

- Providing sufficient food
- Providing adequate clothing
- Securing emergency housing
- Access to transportation for health care
- Information and referral about crisis assistance services
- Access to emergency rent and utility assistance
- Access to basic furniture/household items

Maintaining a community safety net

Helping children and youth succeed

Strengthening families and promoting self-sufficiency for individuals

Building vital and safer neighborhoods

Enhancing the lives of adults with disabilities and seniors

Your support of United Way of the Mid-South makes a difference in people's lives... and that's what matters.™
