

Just a few of the ways your support of United Way's network of care improves EDUCATION, INCOME and HEALTH in the Mid-South

United Way of the Mid-South

Helping children and youth succeed

EDUCATION

SOME EXAMPLES:

- > bornlearning™ efforts
- > Youth education and mentoring
- > After school education sessions
- > Youth early job readiness training
- > Youth United Way leadership program

INCOME

SOME EXAMPLES:

- > Youth early job readiness training
- > Youth Summer Jobs program

HEALTH

SOME EXAMPLES:

- > Mental health care
- > Youth recreation / physical activity
- > Focused care for children 0 to 5 with disabilities
- > Foster care services

Strengthening families & neighborhoods

EDUCATION

SOME EXAMPLES:

- > Adult education and literacy
- > Financial literacy and housing education
- > Job readiness and training
- > Health & wellness education

INCOME

SOME EXAMPLES:

- > Housing and community development
- > Emergency assistance with housing / homelessness
- > Financial literacy and housing education
- > Immigrant services
- > Job readiness and training

HEALTH

SOME EXAMPLES:

- > Discount prescription cards
- > Health & wellness education
- > Responding to domestic violence issues
- > Treating alcohol and drug dependency
- > Work on HIV/AIDS related issues

Improving health for adults and seniors

EDUCATION

SOME EXAMPLES:

- > Age-appropriate job training
- > Helping senior minds stay sharp through age-appropriate mental exercise

INCOME

SOME EXAMPLES:

- > Age-appropriate job training
- > Helping seniors stay in their own homes and maintain their own homes (large capital investment) through visiting nurse services; less spent on full-time care facilities

HEALTH

SOME EXAMPLES:

- > Adult disability services
- > Crisis intervention hotline
- > UW Agencies specializing in treating senior health-related issues
- > Mental health services (adults & senior adults)