What a Priceless and Honored Experience!

“As a Campaign Representative, I gained invaluable knowledge about non-profits. The leadership experience allowed me the engagement platform to share with businesses and the community how we can best assist those in need. United Way of the Mid South has also afforded me with the opportunity to continue being a servant leader advocate for our community.”

UNITED WAY’S CAMPAIGN REPRESENTATIVE (CR) PROGRAM

During our busy resource and development season, United Way keeps its overhead low and is able to achieve great results through people and organizations helping in our Campaign Representative Program.

Campaign Representatives serve the Mid-South as essential leaders in United Way's work to fund programs which support a cause: advancing individuals and families from poverty to prosperity.

Participants will engage in the community through group volunteer projects, tours of partner organizations, meetings and by speaking with various audiences about the work of United Way of the Mid-South. The program emphasizes networking and mentorship through a variety of meaningful experiences to educate and inspire your Campaign Representative. From building relationships with key corporate contacts and making presentations to different audiences, participants will expand their professional networks and gain skills to help them advance in their careers.

HOW THE CAMPAIGN REPRESENTATIVE PROGRAM WORKS
